Tim Jonas Enjoys a Mayorga Robusto While Selling Roasted Corn!

Seems that when we featured our March Member of the Month from a festival we attended at Mardi Gras, we've sparked some other members that signed up at events into action! This month's member of the month, Tim Jonas, was a fellow vendor at a motorcycle rally we attended a few years back. Pictured here (far left), hawking his wares enjoying a maduro Mayorga Robusto, he seems to dig the gig! Thanks for taking the time to send us your mug, Tim! We're glad you're still with us!

Yo Cigar Dudes,

I always bring your smokes to the festivals and think of you when I fire them up each time! Trying not to get any ashes on the corn (secret seasoning!) Here we are at this big ass event in Tampa called the Gasparilla Pirate Festival. What a kick. They dress up like a bunch of pirates and come into the city on a big Clipper Ship and invade the city. Then there's a big Mardi Gras type of parade and everybody ends up where we set up our booth! Sold lot-o-corn! Take it easy guys!
